Skeleton School
May 22, 1935.

Dear Miss Neumann
Will you remember me,
Whenever you eat a pea.
I have written this autograph,
And stick a picture in your photograph.
A bad spot is on me,
For I can't see a picture of you.
For-get-me not
And think of me as your favorite pot.

Sincerly yours.
Dick Joji Sugimoto

Dear Miss Neumann,

When I am big do you know what I am going to be? A monk of course, so I can be alone or maybe an engineer so I can fix everything on the earth and maybe I can invent a car that can fly.

Yours truly,

Dear Miss Neumann.

Teacher of mine, as of life
I am learning. Still more I honor the lesson you taught me;
Dairy with love, is my heart to you turning,
Every day brings you my tribute of thought,
Pal may be near to me, you are the nearest;
None half so loyal, no faith half so true;
Friend may be dearest to me, you are the dearest. Your's is the heart of mine
Teacher of mine. Hope you luck in future life.
God.
